Why You Are Reading This?

I believe the number of things you've tried says more about you than the number of things you've succeeded at.

Lessons Along The Way

AI Entrepreneurs Lab from EIT, A five-day founder bootcamp for Entrepreneur 10/2026 – 11/2026
Budapest
Me and a classmate tried to apply to this bootcamp with our idea (Regulift) that you can find in much more details on:
- github ;
- WebSite ;

ETH InCube Challenge Application, Passed 3 out of 4 Steps 2026 – 2026
Rovereto
Failed at the last step of the application screening

MBZUAI (Masdar Institute of Science and Technology), Possible Master in AI 2025 – 2025
Rovereto
Not passed the interview process

DeepSafe , Duolingo for the Cybersecurity & AI Market 2024 – 2025
Verona
Educating different segments (teenagers and adults) on current risks and themes related to digital lives.
Failed as it was one of many projects I was building during my bachelor and I rather decided to focus on others -> lack of time.

Nogarole fortress (VR), University Of Verona Business Project 01/2024 – 12/2024
Verona
entrepreneurial team project in which we proposed a complete business plan to give new life to the Nogarole fortress (VR)

Libri Per Il cambiamento , Content creation project 2022 – 2023
Rovereto
The idea was recording myself while reading books and upload online on the main platform.
Stopped as I realised that it wasn't scalable and too much time consuming.

Cambridge English Certificate, 05/2022 – 05/2022
Trento
Didn't achieved the B2 level (158 points instead of 160)
